Re: World Wrestling Entertainment, Inc. v. JAKKS Pacific, Inc., et al.
Case No. 1:04-CV-08223-KMK

Dear Judge Karas:

We write on behalf of our clients, defendants THQ Inc. and Brian Farrell (the "THQ Defendants") with respect to the above-referenced action. We understand that the JAKKS Defendants have requested, and have received, permission to submit a short response to the 15 page letter delivered to the Court by World Wrestling Entertainment, Inc. ("WWE") on Friday May 6, 2005.

On behalf of the THQ Defendants, we too request permission to submit a short responsive letter, no longer than 10 double-spaced pages and no later than May 13, 2005, addressing those portions of WWE's letter that relate to THQ. Specifically, we propose to address how WWE's Amended Complaint fails (contrary to WWE's contentions) to remedy the defects in WWE's original pleading as to THQ. Any letter we submit will focus on our clients and we will endeavor not to duplicate matters raised in the JAKKS Defendants' letter. We have no objection if WWE is granted a concomitant opportunity to respond to our letter, as we are advised it has received with respect to the letter from the JAKKS Defendants.

Very truly yours,
